Mr. Richard E. Barbour

DEDICATION

WE, THE CLASS OF 1952, are honored to dedicate this sixty-sixth issue of THE ACADEMY HERALD to Mr. Richard E. Barbour who, during his first year at Gould, has been the dynamic influence of our music department and who has shown a deep, heart-warming concern for each of us during our various music club meetings. The happy memory of Mr. Barbour's hard, faithful work lingers with us as we are about to be graduated from Gould Academy.

Commencement - 1951

Although the present graduating class of 1952 is busily preparing to leave Gould, let us turn back the pages of time to last year's commencement.

The last assembly of 1951 and class day was held at the William Bingham Gymnasium on Friday morning, June 8. At this time the Headmaster presented the following awards.

The Reader's Digest Award
Laura Wilson

Bausch and Lomb Award for Outstanding Progress in Science
Thomas Lamson

Rensselaer Medal for Math and Science
Theodore Chadbourne

Student Council Citizenship Award
Mary Alice Hastings
Theodore Chadbourne

Ralph Gould Musical Award

Sweater Awards
Wayne Bennett
Norman Lowell
Theodore Chadbourne

Girls' Athletic Association Medals
Nancy Van
Susan Hamilton
Mary Alice Hastings
Nancy Cummings
Davene Marble
Grace Taylor

In addition to numerous musical awards and Camera Club awards, a French Medal was presented to Henrietta Swain, the highest ranking French I student of any school in the American Association Teachers of French Contest. Gerald Emery presented the state track championship awards to the school. Also, at this time, a presentation by Nancy Dupee was made to Miss Ann Griggs, who was retiring after many years spent at Gould as music instructor. The program ended with the presentation of class gifts, class will, and class prophecy, with Theodore Chadbourne acting as chairman.

On Saturday, June 9, the Alumni Banquet was held in the William Bingham Gymnasium, with the class of 1926 enjoying a special reunion. A piano duet was played by two members of the senior class, Sue Hamilton and Jean Renwick. The speaker after dinner was Professor Herbert Brown from Bowdoin College. Saturday afternoon brought a baseball game between the alumni and the undergraduates. Immediately following the game, coffee and punch were served at the Headmaster's home.

Saturday evening found everyone gathering in the William Bingham Gymnasium for the Senior Reception, which brought the day to a perfect close, for the gaiety that prevailed far surpassed the awaiting sorrow of departing.

The Baccalaureate Exercises were held Sunday morning, June 10, at the Congregational Church. The sermon was given by Reverend Milton McGorrill of Orono.

At last the long-awaited moment came! At 2:30 Sunday afternoon, the Commencement Program took place in the William Bingham Gymnasium. As the strains of Pomp and Chivalry floated through the air, seventy-three robed students marched into the gym and took their seats. The program began.

Benediction — Charlotte Stevens

At the end of the exercises we heard once again the billowing tones of Pomp and Chivalry, and the senior class of 1951 filed out of the gym, having learned what the blessed motto "To Thine Own Self Be True" means. They were then ready to face life's many problems with courage and determination, using the knowledge they had gained from their happy years at Gould. Thus ended the Commencement Program of 1951.

With the Sophomores

Well, here we are, Sophomores, all 68 of us. Some of the familiar faces are missing, but there are many new ones to take their places.

Our class officers are as follows:

President	Paul Fossett
Vice President	Perdita Huston
Secretary	Donna Anderson
Treasurer	Richard Onofrio

I will now attempt to characterize each of us by the following:

HERBERT ADAMS — "If at first you don't succeed, try another method."

DONNA ANDERSON — "It's nice to be natural when you're naturally nice."

HUGH AWALT — "I love its giddy gurgle; I love its fluent flow."

ALBERT BAKER — "'Tis the greatest of folly not to be jolly."

DOROTHY BARTLETT — "Men just don't understand me."

LINDON BARTLETT — "Did nothing in particular and did it very well."

JOAN BENNETT — "Life is just a bowl of cherries; I get all the pits."

RUTH BISHOP — "A good sport she is; a jolly, good friend on whom most anything you can depend."

ROBERT BLAKE — "He drives as if he were rehearsing for an accident."

JANE BLAKEMORE — "I'm a bit too shy for a big girl."

JERI BROWN — "Her voice is soft and low
when she gets up to recite;
It sounds a great deal different though
When school lets out at night."

BETTY ANN BUTTERS — "Ah, why should life all labor be?"

NANCY CARVER — "A dependable friend is like gold in the bank."

ALLEN CHASE — "Variety, the spice of life."

JOAN CONNOR — "I'm not bashful — much!"

PHILIP COREY — "If I cannot find a way, I will make one."

LIONEL COULOMBE — "Don't talk to me of women; talk of something sensible."

ROBERT CURTIS — "May you live all the days of your life."

MARY ELLEN DOUGLASS—"Strictly atomic!"

PRISCILLA EAMES — "In the search for men, I shall never give up."

DAVID FLEET —
"David is the outdoor type,
Hunting and fishing are near;
He gets his limit when he fishes
And always gets his deer!"

FRANK FLINT — "Eat, drink and be merry."

PAUL FOSSETT — "Latin is French, and French is Latin. But each is the same to me."

VAN GALE — "Smoke gets in your eyes."

DAVID GOVE —
"Life's a jest and all things show it;
I thought so once, and now I know it!"

ATHALIE HALL — "Ain't you glad that you are single?"

MARY HEWITT — "Full of pep, vim, and vigor."

HELEN HOLT — "An unextinguished giggle fills the air."

PERDITA HUSTON — "Man has his will but woman has her way."

ARLAN JODREY — "All great men get lazy. Gee, but I'm tired."

MARY KNEELAND — "Never a dull moment."

JANET KOROHNEN — "Speech is great, but silence is greater."

LEROY LEARNED — "Think twice before you speak; then talk to yourself."

PATRICIA LEARNED —
"Fond of beauty, life, and laughter,
Pleasure first and business after."

ROBERT LINGHAM — "There's mischief in this man."

MARLENE MARSHALL—"Never do today what you can do tomorrow."

FELIX McMORRAN —
"If someone's needed to get things done,
Then Buzzy's surely the perfect one."

CARROLL MELVILLE —
"As pleasant a person as you'll ever find,
'Skip' surely is one of the very best kind."

LEE MERRILL — "The only thing worse than one woman is two women."

MARY ANN MYERS — "It is quality rather than quantity that counts."

SHELIA NARY — "A horse to ride; a song to sing."

RAYMOND NOWLIN — "Wait 'till the Saturday night."

RUSSELL NUTTING — "The trouble with his golf game is that he stands too close to the ball after he has hit it."

BEVERLY ONOFRIO—"Little now; little then; little forever. AMEN!"

MARY PATRICK — "The ups and downs of life do not disturb me."

HARRISON PHILBRICK — "The silence is golden."

LEO ROLFE — "In athletics he can excel, as many an opponent can truly tell."

LOIS SCRIBNER — "Nature made her what she is and never made another."

MATILDA SKILLINGS — "A wise woman will make more opportunities than she finds."

BARBARA SMITH —
"We have no time to sport away the hours;
All must be earnest in a world like ours."

LEWIS SMITH — "'Tis said that one who is very tall will travel far without a fall."

ROBERTA SYNDER — "Small, but who ever complained about the size of dynamite?"

RONALD SYNDER — "He smiled, and that was all he said."

MARTHA SPAULDING — "A smile for every girl — two for every boy."

JANCE STEARNS — "It's a woman's privilege to change her mind."

VALERIA STEVENS —
"For blessings ever wait on virtuous deeds,
And though late, a sure reward succeeds."

RODERICK SWIFT — "Ah, ha! Curiosity was said to have killed the cat, but no one is more alive than Roddy!"

BERTHA TAYLOR — "Get thee behind me, Satan."

BETTY TODD — "We cannot always oblige, but we can always speak obligingly."

RICHARD TYLER — "I was short when I was young; I've been short ever since."

LEO TYLER — "A little nonsense now and then is realized by the best of men."

DAVID VINCENT —
"Dave's one of the sportiest guys,
In more ways than one;
To beat this kid in anything,
Brother, it just can't be done."

GAIL WALDRON —
"Of those arts in which the wise excel,
Nature's chief masterpiece is writing well."

STANLEY WALKER — "A closed mouth catches no flies."

RICHARD WATERHOUSE —
"There in body but not in mind."

ROY WERMENCHUK —
"Little gremlins sping when they see him pass,
They make him forget all his work for class."

GENE WHITE — "Don't just itch for success; scratch for it."

NANCY WILLARD — "Love, the only fire against which there is no insurance."

With the Freshmen

This year the freshman class enrollment was sixty-nine. Our class has taken an active part in sports, including football, basketball, and skiing. The class officers were elected as follows:

President	William Daley
Vice-President	Philip Rowe
Secretary	Eleanor Sumner
Treasurer	Jane Smith

Each of the sixty-nine members of the class of 1955 has a character all his own — a character which I will try to describe below with various song titles, movie titles, and poems.

MARY BELLE BENNETT:
"She's right up to par.
We all know she'll go far."

BEVERLY BLAKE:
"Until you know her, she's quite shy,
But when you do know her — my, oh, my!!"

LEO BOTTOMLY:
"Beautiful Brown Eyes."

WENDELL BRAGG:
"That baseball fiend."

ARTHUR BUCKMAN:
"Goin' fishin'."

KENNETH BUMPUS:
"Dangerous Mood."

CHARLES BURNHAM:
"Saturday's Hero."

LIDA CAPELLE:
"Where did you learn to squeak out those high notes on the violin??"

LEE CARROLL:
"You can collect airplanes as long as you don't take off in one — Destination Moon, you know!!"

EDWARD CARTER:
"Where's your license, Bub?"

MARY JANE CHAPMAN:
"Powder Your Face With Sunshine"

WILLIAM COOLIDGE:
"For He's a Jolly Good Fellow."

CARL CORKUM:
"The whiz quiz at math."

VERNE CORKUM:
"Live and Let Live."

WILLIAM DALEY:
"An 'A' honor roll guy,
With lots of mischief in his eye."

NORMAN DAVIS:
"I've got rocks on the brain."

HOWARD DONAHUE:
"Smoke, Smoke, Smoke that Cigarette."

KAY DOREY:
"I Don't Want to Set the World on Fire."

CORINNE DOYLE:
"I'm Forever Blowing Bubbles."

ROBERT EDNEY:
"A little guy with a big heart."

RUBY ENMAN:
"A little short, a little shy,
You know what she's up to by the gleam in her eye."

DOROTHY FOSTER:
"Come to the Stable."

LEON FLOOD GARDNER:
"Go 'way and let me sleep."

GEORGE GALE:
"Wine, Women and Words."

RICHARD GILLMAN:
"I'll Be Down to Get You in a Taxi Honey;
My jeep has got a flat!"

NESTA GORDON:
"Sitting at an upright, my sweetie and me,
Pushing on the pedals makin' sweet harmony."

CALVIN GROSS:
"How long does it take you to pin curl your hair?"

PATRICIA GUNTHUR:
"Bluebird of Happiness' with brown eyes."

RUTH HALL:
"The quiet type."

FRANKLIN HARRINGTON:
"Don't measure his character by his inches, because he's short for that."

ARTHUR HEAD:
"Shotgun Boogie"

BARBARA HULBERT:
"What would happen if she didn't get on the 'A' honor roll?"

BARBARA JODREY:
"Who'll be the next one?"

WINONA KORHONEN:
"A smile for everyone."

CLARK LEIGHTON:
"Choke that Chevvy!"

DAVID LORD:
"It ain't the voice that makes the man."

WILLIAM LORD:
"Do you think the Yankees will ever make the pennant?"

SHIRLEY MASON:
"Beautiful Blonde from Bashful Bend."

EUGENE McALLISTER:
"Hey, Good Looking."

ALMA MERRILL:
"Ain't Misbehavin'!"

JUNE MERRILL:
"A cute girl with a cute figure—
Where do you get all that vim and vigor?"

DANIEL MOORE:
"How's fishin'??"

BEVERLY NOYES:
"Take it easy!"

HILDA RAFUSE:
"Sunny Side of the Street."

JENNIE RICHARDSON:
"How Many Hearts Have You Broken?"

MIRIANNE RICHMOND:
"Lady Be Good."

SYLVIA RING:
"Don't Fence Me In."

HOWARD ROLFE:
"Babe Ruth."

PHILIP ROWE:
"More 'Bounce' to the ounce.'

IVA RUG:
"Silence is Golden."

DOUGLAS SAUNDERS:
"He does the five minute roll with the drums and his eyes."

LOUISE SAUNDERS:
"Sentimental You."

FLORENCE SKILLINGS:
"Dark Eyes."

PRISCILLA SKILLINGS:
"The girl who makes all the baskets!"

GRACE SMITH:
"Smile, smile, smile."

JANE SMITH:
"The girl with the personality."

DAVID STEVENS:
"Timber-r-r-!!"

ELEANOR SUMNER:
"Look out for that redheaded ball of fire!"

RICHARD TRIMBACK:
"Aw, come on Romeo — all these Juliets won't hurt you."

DONALD TYLER:
"Wotta' man!"

DIANNE WATSON:
"There's deviltry a-brewin' in those eyes."

ROBERT WERMENCHUK:
"THE mechanic!"

CAROLYN WEYMOUTH:
"Irresistable You."

MALVERN WILSON:
"Young Man with the Horn."

JAMES YORK:
"How's the criss-craft coming?
Don't let it sink you!"

LORITA YORK:
"Oh Babe!"

PATRICIA ALLEN, '55

Gehring Hall

Once we decided to pay a visit to Gehring Hall, we found some difficulties ahead of us, such as choosing a good time to make our visit. We were bound to miss something, because if we had come around during study hours (which would have been interesting), we would have missed those who study at Hanson Hall, and almost any other time of the day, we would find most of the second-hallers down-stairs in the greatly prized smoker. So we finally decided upon 9:45 as the ideal time and made our surprise attack then!!

As we enter the door, we see Mrs. G. struggling with the maze of notices and lost and found articles and trying to restore order to the bulletin board before she adjourns to the teacher's room with the rest of the faculty members.

A collision is made with Buttons as we push open the door and start up the stairs, for she is on her way down to send off a new batch of letters to that certain soldier.

Reaching the top of the stairs, we almost turned the corner before Shippee's shout of "Where did Maynard hide my tooth brush now, roommate?" reminds us that room No. 25 must not be omitted! On second thought, we know that tone of voice too well, and we hope that she will forget about it if we come back later.

Sue ducks her head under the covers when we open the door, but you can't fool us, Miss Humphrey — that funny book there on the corner of the bed hasn't been balancing there so precariously for very long! She, no doubt, thinks that we are collecting for Camera Club pictures again!!

Connie and Gail's room proves to be empty at the moment. There's no telling where those two are or what they are up to!

Walking into the next room, we find Lala bent laboriously over her desk, nose in one of those familiar history books, while Nancy is reading — such a difference in taste! Nancy seems to prefer Seventeen, with its fetching fashions when it comes to leisurely reading. What normal person wouldn't.

Across the hall, Margie is getting out her box of bobby pins and prepares for her hour-long operation. She has a head start tonight and might even get her bangs done up by lights out! Congrats, Cleo, maybe your efforts to reform some of her night-hawk habits are proving worth while. But no, there's Bounce with her now, deciding whose room they'll meet in and what they'll talk about tonite!! She plans to outwit Sue and get the conference held in your room, Cleo, so don't get angry and throw the typewriter, but get in there and pitch in the old Stinchfield style.

The next stop finds Priscilla, and we certainly wonder at her ability to concentrate, dreaming about "my honey", while Kathy types away on those never ending Blue and Gold articles.

Cries of "I bet this has something to do with it" and "Oh, now she's done it" attract us to the residence of Barton and Horsefield, where we find our two mechanics deeply absorbed in the intricacies of Carol's "vic."

Entering the hall again, we find Barbara just administering the finishing touches to her spotless room, while Lucy sits laughing over Johnny's latest joke!

Everything is quiet in Buttons and Ann's room — oh, no, wait a minute, someone's there! It's Ann, writing her newest full length novel to send off to U. V. M.

If we could only tell whether or not Sue was in bed beneath that pile of stuffed animals, it would help. Oh, yes, that yellow goat just let out a groan of "What do you want now" that sounds much like Sue. Off we go, before we wake her up.

The silence with which Judy and Frankie greet us in the next room tells us that we just interrupted another of those lengthy discussions on boys. Mary sits quietly at her desk, counting calories again, we bet, and gives us one of her pert "Hellos" before she returns to her work! Judy, who is going home to good old Vermont next weekend, couldn't be quiet for long, and we shut the door on her most pleading and winsome, "Will you wait on for me this weekend?"

As we start down the corridor for Jo and Frankie's domain, we hear echoing behind us from Connie — "Betsy, don't forget to call me in the morning, 6:30!" We find Jo trying to get her room in order. "You haven't seen that worthless roommate of mine around, have you?" In answer to that, we can only point meekly to Judy's room and beat a quick retreat.

The music of "Sixty Minute Man" blaring from the last room on second hall, tells us that Colleen and Betsy have shoved aside their furniture once again and are "cutting a rug." Such energy! We only stay long enough to relay Connie's message — oops, that's what we thought! There's Gail DiBiaso in the door wanting to wait on for Betsy, and this can lead to a long discussion, since Gail is the one person who is harder to talk out of waiting on than into it!! We better leave for third hall, now or never.

We meet Carolyn Brown on the back stairs and there's no need to ask where she's been — talking Val into going out to the ski hill tomorrow, and the grin on her face tells us that she's been successful, as usual!!

Whew! We walked unaware of our mistake right into the end room, which happens to have donned fresh new blue paint just today! Well now we know, and we even have a blue smudge to show for it!

"Ja, da, ja, da," comes sailing out at us from the next room, obviously Marcia and Emmy's. Emmy hums along with Marcia's uke, while Emmy sets her hair and smiles at Vic Damone's picture which hangs over the mirror.

Ooops!! More paint is all we find here.

Hi, Val. She's actually caught in the act — writing a book report. But those ski poles in the corner are a reminder that her mind is on other things as well.

Heavens, how many more freshly painted rooms can there be? Not many, we hope! Let's try across the hall.

Ouch—no paint, but wow! Dianne has just returned home and is greeted none too affectionately by Lida! "Why did you eat my grapefruit?" "But — ," manages Di. "You could have eaten those pears that are about to spoil, or at least the fruit out on the window sill." Later they'll settle down to their usual peaceful life.

No, that's not Betty Hutton in the next room, but pretty close to it! Pat Allen is working out a new routine, and she takes it seriously, so we won't interrupt her.

Barbara is in Chickie's room, discussing some likely topics to be given more consideration after lights. "Did I tell you." "No, but be sure to tonite, etc.," is heard while Mimi stands in the background trying to find a way to stare at Roger's picture.

Janie is resting quietly in the first completed "blue room," munching a banana and reading the latest movie magazine. She sure looks comfortable, and we'd love to join her, but lights will be out soon, and we must complete our tour!

Corrinne's room is filled with "Bubble's" high gay voice, raised aloft in the latest jazzy song. The thought of her vivacity makes us smile, and we take just a look to see if Bette is home and continue on our way!

Checking in Perdita's room, we find Smut's reading away on a library book, while "Pedu" and Mary Patrick are discussing their mysterious afternoon ride with the usual laughter that reigns in this room.

As we start for Mary Ellen's room, we meet her in the hall, all ready to shampoo her hair in the last remaining three minutes and yelling, "Anyone got any shampoo I can borrow?"

We find Gail at home, trying to talk Bette into staying just a minute more, but Bette knows better and says her "Goodnight" with a wink, and "I'll see you later!"

And now we must be off to our room, No. 25, hoping that Shippee has forgotten about her tooth brush so that peace and quiet can prevail everywhere tonite!! "Lights out" a voice calls, and we stumble into our room, the tour for 1952 of the peaceful world of Gehring Hall is completed! Please come again next year, won't you?

Holden Hall

The usual quota of bright-faced new students arrived this September along with those who had once before experienced the ups and downs of Gould life. However, when the "full story telling" about brutal six week's exams and the like began, the tenderfoots lost their beaming faces and expressions of diffidence replaced them.

The annual Christmas Party was about the first thing to "come off" in Holden Hall. Mr. Thompson was Santa this year and, with much emphasis, read the witty poetic masterpieces which had been prepared diligently at the last moment.

The next thing in line was the Dorm Party. For making this such a success, thanks must be given to all the faculty and students who helped to make the party possible and who participated in its show.

The skiing maniacs greeted the first snow with open arms, and when enough of the white magic had covered the encircling hills, a group of enthusiastic Holdenites descended upon this peaceful scene, making many curious imprints beside ski trails in the snow.

Meanwhile, the basketball fiends had been very happily galloping from one end of the floor to the other, not noting or caring about the outside weather.

Rambling aimlessly on the lower floor, we encounter Mr. Clunie in the office, telling another of his "stories" to ardent listeners, Erwin Bacon, "Chuck" Walker, and "Harry" Philbrick. Not even realizing that others were in the same room, Read Cheyne is carrying on an extensive, soft-voiced telephone conversation which consists of — "Yes — yes — of course— etc." Ah, love is such a sweet thing!

Harmonica music (?) is drifting through the door slots of the room off the office that was last year occupied by Mr. Miele, now inhabited by late-comer Phil Corey.

Strolling down the corridor toward the pool room, we pass through the sound waves of a hot jazz record issuing forth from Gardner Flood's room. Without intruding, we visualize him lying on the bed listening contentedly without another care in the world.

On entering the fabulous pool room, we find it amazingly quiet. A peaceful game of billiards is being professionally played by Bob Edney, Don Sweeney, Bob Cornell, and a town boy.

Leaving this madhouse, we cross the hall and pop our head into Hughie Awalt's abode to find him at his desk, deeply absorbed, as usual, in a gun magazine.

The aroma of fresh apples baffles us as we opened the door of David Lord's room. Dave doesn't seem to be around; although he could be in the closet, tied up, that is. He's lucky that he had a light installed, as he spends quite a lot of time there.

On entering "Jimmy" York's plane factory, we find the little worker busily working at another model while experienced craftman, Dave Gove, contributes helpful points. The person who just left in a cloud of plywood shavings was "Fred-O" Smith, who probably had just contributed his two cents worth. Alan Chase is watching the whole interesting procedure from his room across the hall.

Slipping quietly into the massive residence of Phil Rowe and "Billy" Daley, we find them spellbound as they listen to another Green Hornet episode — guess we'd better leave before we get too involved.

Across the hall is Mr. Scott's apartment. Having no checks to cash, we do not disturb him; instead, we enter the hall. The loud drum playing from the basement sounds like Doug Saunders is at it again and sure he is. Nearby, George Rogers is pounding out "Because of You" on Bob Cornell's "woodpile" (xylophone). As if this wasn't enough racket, in stumbles a snow-covered image with skiis on his shoulders which looks like Dave Vincent. Following him, with an equal expression of fatigue is "Buzzy" McMorton, who has probably just returned from an afternoon of skating. I hear many things attract people to the rink besides the ice.

Passing the open door of the butt room, we perceive George "Bill" Gale at his favorite pastime.

Before returning upstairs, we might as well see who's making all the commotion in the dark room. One of the voices sounds like Wendell Bragg and the other is Mr. Foster's. Possible work awaits us, so, in order to continue our little journey, we leave the industrious and neat surroundings of the outer dark room and head up the stairs which finally brings us up on good old second floor, the hunting grounds for stray freshmen.

Treading softly down Clunie's Alley, we stop to see what Keith Clarke is up to, only to be greeted by a loud snore and a prostrate form on the bed.

Next door, Frankie Linnell, the famous guitar player, can be seen in front of his mirror adding that last touch to his curley red locks before bounding across the street to wait on and, very possibly, to see another "Frankie."

Glenn Miller's enchanting orchestra lures us into the castle of John Symons and Dave Ault. Johnny is rhymatically typing a letter and David must have already left for Gehring Hall, in hopes that he won't get another bawling out for being late.

En route to the other corridor, we stop by to find "Roddy" Swift not wishing to be disturbed as he works with his tool kit on a miniature 1914 "Stitz Bearcat." Roommate Van Gale has long since departed for the dining room, leaving a strong scent of shaving lotion behind him —Mrs. Scott's influence, I presume.

Upon entering the dwelling of the Petes, Hussey and Johnson, we discover the roommates sharing one bed while guest, Henri Agnese, occupies the other, each giving his own version of "Cry" which is blurting forth from Johnson's "45."

Bob Patterson's room reeks of hair tonic which he undoubtedly has just finished using before dashing across the way to wait on, among other things.

The youth wearing the green and white colors of St. Johnsbury Academy who just cantered up the stairs, is Bill Penner, looking as if he had just come in from the biting February winds.

The owner of that "Bumble Boogie" record is birthday boy, "T. B." Butler, who is at present curled up on his bed reading the "New Yorker."

Hearing the pleasant sound of an electric razor, we barge into the domicle of Fred-O Smith and Bob Lingham, expecting to see Fred-O performing his bi-daily duty, only to find that Bob has taken up one of his roommate's nerve racking habits.

Next door, "Al" Awalt is peacefully reading the latest issue of Hot Rods, as the turn-table spins "Tell Me Why"—sorry, Al, can't answer that one!

While David Edelstein stores away the food he has just purchased, Bob David is selecting the records he desires to hear and is arguing over whose turn it was to sign them in.

Darkness is all that can be found in "Skip" Chandler's lodging besides his possessions which includes a book entitled, How to Stop Smoking — Two bits says that he's in the butt room.

The loud speaker of "Fletch" Fletcher's radio is yielding the latest world news while he absorbs it. It's nice to know that we have someone in this dorm who is interested in the outside world.

Across the hall, we observe Dale Bosworth sprawled across two beds taking his usual nap before undertaking the task of consuming a delicious dinner. Roommate "Speedy" Gilman has long ago left the sleeping beauty and tackled a more vigorous job of waiting on.

"Pete" Oakes, busily reading tomorrow's assignment in English Literature and consuming cinnamon drops between sentences, didn't appreciate the intrusion, so we promptly closed the door, leaving him in his solitude.

As I enter my room, I immediately sit down and again start to look over the heap of assorted travel folders which clutter the top of my desk, in hopes that soon I may experience the scenes that are described in the colorful leaflets.

The previous scenes are typical of Holden Hall life on a February afternoon.

STUDENT COUNCIL

Student Council

The Student Council of Gould Academy, in its seventh year as an organization, is truly an outstanding form of student government.

Its officers are as follows: Donald Bennett, President; John Willard, Vice President; Carol Barton, Secretary. A new treasurer is to be elected as Marilyn Mace has left school.

The members who comprise the functioning committees are: Paul Fossett, Frank Linnell, Lionel Coulombe, Donald Bennett, Public Relations and School Publicity Committee; Mary Ann Myers, Carol Barton, and Edward Hastings, Finance Committee; John Willard, Cleo Stinchfield, Beverly Lurvey, and Gail Waldron, Assembly Committee.

The faculty advisor and assistant advisor are Mr. Edmond Vachon and Mr. Theodore Emery.

Donald Bennett represents the Student Council on the Athletic Council.

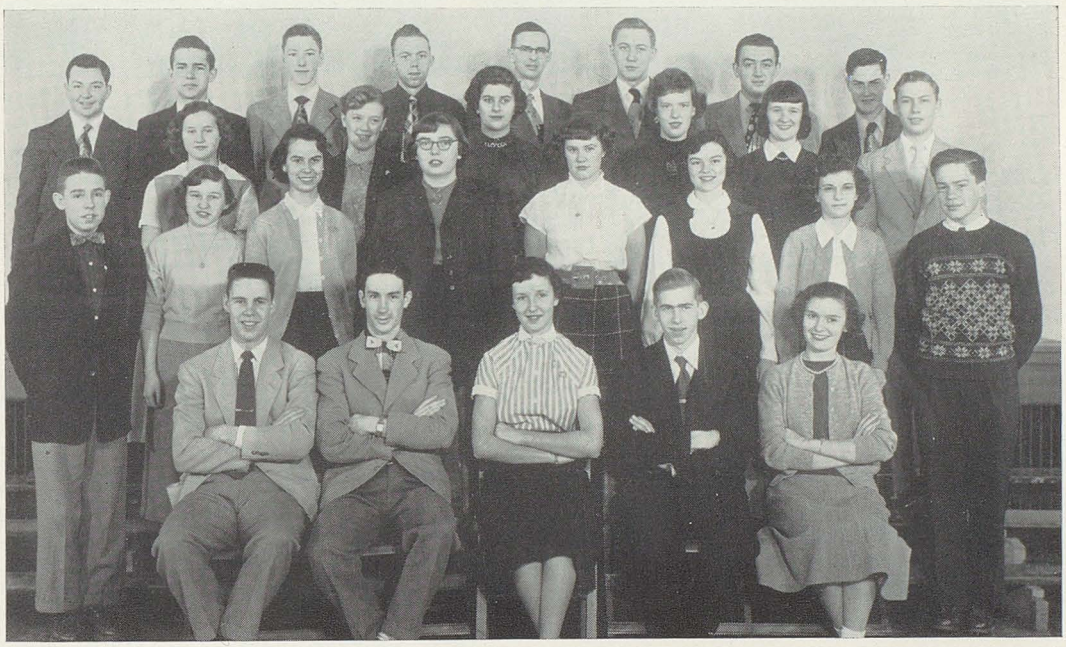

Two freshman representatives were chosen after the first twelve weeks of school. They are Jane Smith and Philip Rowe.

Included in the Council's numerous duties are: selecting films and furnishing other material for morning assembly programs, sponsoring the Christmas formal, supervising fund drives for the March of Dimes, Red Cross, and Heart Association. The council members check the class elections, sell tickets at athletic events, and usher at evening programs. The students are given many opportunities to participate in school affairs.

A most highly esteemed organization, the Student Council provides for the representation of the students. Being elected by their classmates, the members have the responsibility of bringing forth the many opinions of the students which is a vital part in school. Membership in the Council is a position of which to be proud, as the members have chosen for a goal the benefit and betterment of Gould Academy.

High Notes of '51 - '52

LAST SPRING:

As the spring term progressed, the various music clubs participated in a number of entertaining performances.

Gould Academy was represented at the New England Festival at Auburn, Maine, on March 13, by several of its outstanding musical students.

The William Rogers Chapman Club, under the direction of Miss Griggs, gave a spring concert in May with its usual success.

On May 16, the annual spring concert was presented. The three glee clubs and the Chapman Club, directed by Miss Griggs, and the band, under the direction of Mrs. Pearl Kilborn, worked hard during rehearsals to create a pleasing performance.

Miss Griggs' piano and voice pupils gave their annual recital on June 7, 1951.

Gould's Varsity Glee Club participated in the joint concerts with Bridgton and Fryeburg Academies. These concerts proved highly successful, giving all the participants opportunities to meet new friends with similiar interests and also give them a chance to perform with these new friends in their hometowns.

The glee clubs and orchestra provided music for the Commencement Day exercises, this being the last performance under the direction of Miss Griggs.

This year there were several new members admitted to the faculty, one of whom is Mr. Richard E. Barbour, who has been doing splendid work as director of music here at Gould.

This being his first year here, Mr. Barbour has been trying to build up the musical organizations, especially the instrumental portion. In so doing, he has become well acquainted with the students, thus creating much interest in these extra-curricular organizations.

GIRLS' GLEE CLUB:

This club has proceeded as usual with seventy-seven members. Because of its large membership, the club was divided into two groups, freshman and sophomores meeting on one Wednesday and the juniors and seniors meeting the following Wednesday during activity period.

BOYS' GLEE CLUB:

This organization, with twenty-four conscientious members, has been an active group, meeting weekly during Monday's activity period. The boys have done some excellent singing, having provided music for Parents' Day and the Christmas Assembly.

VARSITY GLEE CLUB:

This club consists of a selected group of mixed voices. It is made up of all the boys in the Boys' Glee Club with selected voices from the Girls' Glee Club. With fifty-one members, Varsity meets weekly during activity period on Friday.

WILLIAM ROGERS CHAPMAN CLUB:

The Chapman Club is made up of a group of twenty-eight members. Each new member is auditioned in the fall before he is admitted to the club. Members are admitted as soloists or members of small ensembles. Meetings are held every other Thursday.

The officers of the club are:

President	Janice Lord
Vice President	Peter Johnson
Secretary	Beverly Lurvey
Treasurer	Read Cheyne
Program Chairman	Richard Emery

THE ORCHESTRA:

The orchestra, at present, has twenty-three members. Mr. Barbour hopes to build this organization up in the next few years and, as a start, he has been working to increase interest among the grammar school students who will become active members in the Gould orchestra in the years to come. The orchestra rehearses every other Thursday during activity period.

BAND:

The band has twenty-four members who have worked hard during their practice hours held every Monday evening. The band has steadily improved and deserves considerable recognition. It has also been one of the features on the sidelines at the basketball games, adding much to the school spirit.

CHOIR:

Many of Gould's students are members of the Congregational and Methodist church choirs. Mr. Barbour is acting as director of the Methodist Church Choir, and Mrs. John Tebbetts is directing the choir of the Congregational Church.

The accompanists of the various musical organizations deserve a great deal of credit for their effort in making these clubs successful. They are:

JANICE LORD —
Boys' Glee Club and Congregational Church Choir.

RUTH HALL —
Girls' Glee Club

FRANK FLINT —
Varsity Glee Club, Chapman Club, Operetta, Christmas Concert, Methodist Church Choir.

DAVID LORD —
Orchestra

On Saturday evening, October 20, as part of the Parents' Day program, the Boys' Glee Club entertained the audience with a couple of numbers, "Kentucky Babe" and "Stouthearted Men." An ensemble of eight girls sang "Dear Land of Home."

The annual Sacred Christmas Concert, featuring Handel's "Messiah," was presented in the Congregational Church by the Varsity Glee Club and the choirs of the Methodist and Congregational Churches. Each of the three groups sang two appropriate Christmas anthems. Working together, they presented a portion of the "Messiah." Soloists were: Beverly Lurvey, Janice Lord, Mary Ellen Douglass, and Levi Swanson. Mr. Barbour plans to continue giving the Christmas portion of the "Messiah" each year. Assisting in this concert was Mrs. John Tebbetts, director of the Congregational Church Choir.

The Chapman Club sponsored the operetta, "Hulda of Holland." With the assistance of the Varsity Glee Club and direction of Mr. Barbour, the operetta was successfully presented in March.

In the spring, a concert was given in the gymnasium featuring all the musical organizations of Gould Academy.

The Blue and Gold

Gould's own paper, THE BLUE AND GOLD, is well on its way in the 10th year of publication and has become a very necessary part of our school's active life. Under the very capable management of our co-editors, Kathryn Knowles and Donald Bennett, the paper goes ahead with remarkable speed.

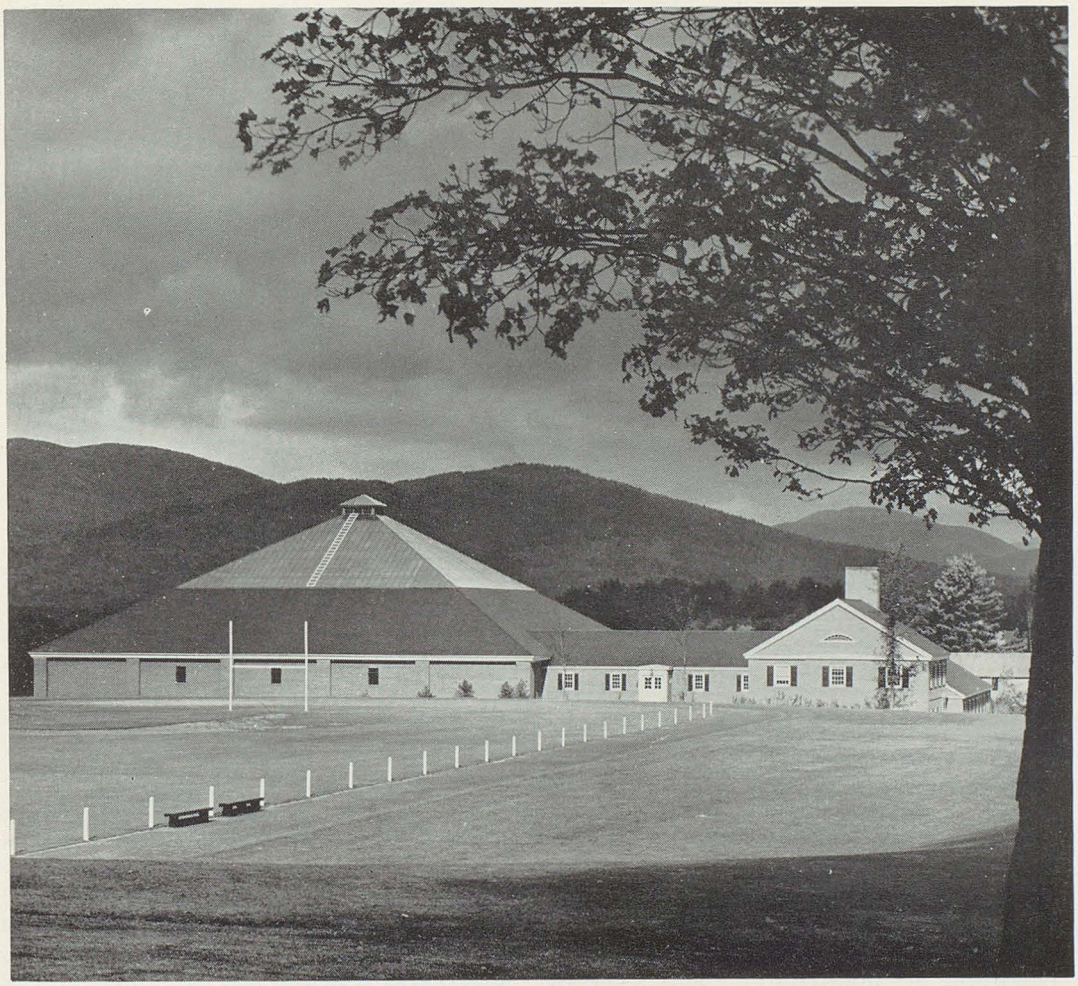

THE BLUE AND GOLD is completely in the hands of the students on the staff with a helping hand, when needed, from the originator of the paper, Mr. Thompson. This year the staff is made up of the co-editors mentioned above, Pete Hussey as Photograph Editor, John Willard as Sports Editor, Jane Edwards, Phyllis Chadbourne, and Levi Swanson as Feature Editors, Carol Barton as Alumni Editor, Susan Kneeland as Exchange Editor, Henrietta Swain as Business-Advertising Manager, Shirley Bartlett as Circulation Manager, and a splendid staff of typists and reporters.

One of the outstanding features in this paper is Under The Cupola, taken care of by the Feature Editors. It is their aim to keep amusing incidents on an even basis in the way of town and dormitory life, incidents pertaining to school life, and boy meets girl problems. Another idea, though new this year and destined to be a success, is the featuring of articles of local trustees of Gould Academy. These articles were met with much approval, for our paper is read not only by students and teachers but also by alumni parents, and trustees.

Because it is made up and written by the students, the faculty advisor very carefully writes out the duties of each editor and reporter. In order to give the underclassmen a better idea of just what to do in their particular field next year, the senior members of THE BLUE AND GOLD will, on their last issue, work with the juniors, showing them what is to be done as a last aid to their paper.

THE BLUE AND GOLD is a member of the Columbia Scholastic Press Association of Columbia University, and we all feel that it rates high in high school standards.

Camera Club

This year marks the tenth anniversary of the Gould Academy Camera Club, which was founded in 1942 by its patient, hard-working faculty advisor Mr. Gayle A. Foster. Through the efforts of Mr. Foster, the club has grown until it now has three well equipped darkrooms, a weekly lecture meeting, and many members who have learned to use cameras and other photographic equipment to the best advantage.

This year it was decided to have lectures and demonstrations every week on Tuesday, rather than every other week on Wednesday as previously arranged in the past. This new plan provided for twice the amount of visual instruction on various phases of photography than had previously been allotted.

Among many of these new improvements in club facilities was a new service arranged with the school book store. This service was a twenty-five per cent discount on all photographic material sold at the store to club members and about a fifteen per cent discount to non-members. This has certainly helped many budgets! Another additional feature to the club's activities was a bulletin board on second hall of Hanscom Hall, opposite to Mr. Fossett's room. This bulletin board displays articles of lasting interest from photographic magazines, along with jokes pertaining to photography, and some of the outstanding show prints of past year's members. The display is changed every week by a bulletin board committee.

The first official meeting of the Camera Club this year was October 16, 1951, when last year's members gathered to elect officers for the ensuing year. The election was decided as follows:

President	Pete Hussey
Vice President	Read Cheyne
Secretaries	Jane Edwards
	Lala Pelky
	Mary Patrick
Treasurer	Kathy Knowles

There have been a large number of freshmen and sophomores who have shown interest and enthusiasm in club work this year. This has the same effect as injecting new blood into the club for future work. Due to this enthusiasm of the underclassmen, there has been an abundancy of help in the darkroom when it was necessary to do a typical job of two hundred enlargements of football games, dorm parties, formals, or similar activities.

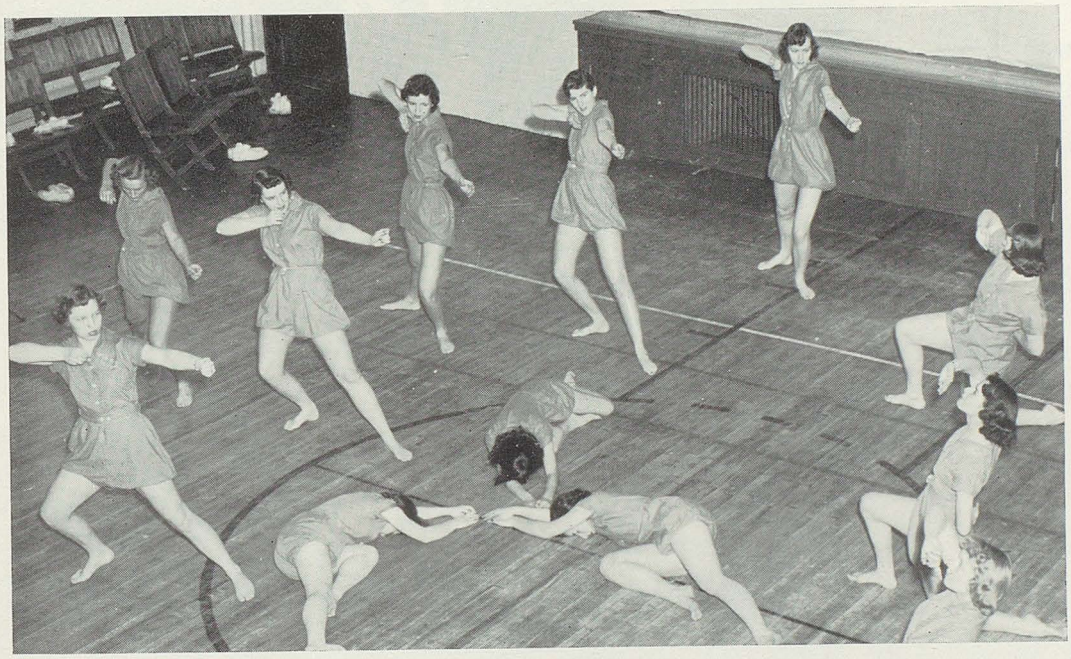

A lecture and demonstration on portrait taking started several people taking portraits and before they were through they were getting good results. Many of these portraits appeared in a contest, along with many other different types of pictures, which was held the last of January. The awards in this contest were valuable photographic material. The contest's first prize was a subscription to THE CAMERA, an excellent photographic magazine. Another contest which was equally successful was held in April.

Other subjects taken up in the weekly lecture meetings include darkroom work, such as developing, printing, and enlarging, work with Kodachrome transparencies, the use of filters, and, in the latter part of the year, many Kodak slide lectures were shown to the group.

The climax of the tenth anniversary of the club was the annual show in June. To celebrate the birthday of the Gould Camera Club a special show, displaying work of the past ten years was held in Hanscom Hall. The regular yearly show contained fifty 11 x 14 enlargements of the best pictures taken by club members of 1951-1952. This combined exhibition at Graduation time climaxed another successful year in the annals of the Gould Academy Camera Club.

Dramatics

On Friday evening, February 15, the Gould Academy Winter Carnival's annual three one-act plays were presented at the William Bingham Gymnasium.

The first play was a farce comedy, Boy Meets Family, centering around Lancelot O'Kay, a bashful young man who got all mixed up when he met his fiancée's family for the first time, played by Fred O. Smith 2nd. Kay Wilson, as Polly Wombly, his financée, tries to straighten him out while her parents, Harley Merrill and Cleo Stinchfield, and her brother, Ned, and sister, Vera, played by Levi Swanson and Betsy Mumford, regarded him with wonder.

The second was Two Crooks and a Lady, a melodrama in which a paralyzed old lady, Mrs. Sims- Vane, portrayed by Perdita Huston, outwitted two crooks who attempted to steal a valuable necklace, turning them against each other. Corrine Doyle played the part of one as Lucile the maid, and Bob Cornell, as Miller the Hawk, played the other. Also in the cast were Miss Jones, Mrs. Sims-Vane's companion, played by Jane Edwards, and Garrity, the police inspector, played by Alan Awalt.

Concluding was the Old Lady Shows Her Medals, a both humorous and tragic play in three scenes. Bob Patterson, as Private K. Dowey of the Black Watch, took the lead in this play about an old scrub woman, Mrs. Dowey, Lillian Guerny, who falsely claimed him as her son to keep her equal with her friends who all had sons at war. When Private Dowey showed up things began to pop. Others in the cast were John Willard as Reverend Wilkinson and the scrub women, Mrs. Mickleham, Mrs. Haggerty, and Mrs. Tully, played by Henrietta Swain, Nancy Dupee, and Lala Pelkey respectively.

The final dramatic presentation of the year, Booth Tarkington's immortal Seventeen, was given in the William Bingham Gymnasium on April 19 by the Senior Class. The play centered around William Sylvanus Baxter, played by Fred

O. Smith 2nd, a seventeen-year-old boy who fell in love with a baby-talking Southern girl, Lola Pratt, portrayed by Barbara Ritchie. Constantly begging for a tuxedo, he made life miserable for his unsympathetic father, Arnold Brown, and taxed all the patience of his understanding mother, Mary Stevens. Also, Jane, Willie's brat kid sister, Nancy Dupee, often made life miserable for him. Lola, who was visiting May Parcher, played by Kay Wilson, became a center of affection for Willie's friends, Johnnie Watson and Joe Bullitt, Peter Johnson and Levi Swanson respectively. Finally Robert Patterson, as the play's great lover, George Crooper, swept Lola off her feet, much to the dismay of Willie. Throughout the play the Baxter's Negro servant Genesis, played by Wayne Gilman, added considerable color and humor. Also in the cast were Mr. Parcher, May's father, who would give anything to get rid of baby-talking Lola, played by David Jordan, Jane Edwards as Ethel Boke, a girl who walks over her dancing partners' feet, and Wallie Banks and Mary Brooks, two friends of Willie, played by Alan Awalt and Connie Gardner.

Sincere thanks should be given all those who helped make the plays a success, especially Mr. David Thompson, whose directing was tops, Carol Barton, who acted as prop manager, and Mrs. David Thompson, Dale Thurston, and Richmond Roderick on the makeup committee.

Future Homemakers of America

This year Gould Academy has added another organization to its varied list of outside activities. The Future Homemakers of America is the national organization of pupils studying homemaking in junior and senior high schools all over the United States and its territories. It was founded June 11, 1945, and is an incorporated non-profit youth activity. It is composed of chartered associations in the States, including Puerto Rico and Hawaii. These in turn are made up of local chapters in junior and senior high schools. Any pupil who has been enrolled or is enrolled in homemaking may become a member. The officers of Gould's F.H.A. are as follows:

President	Joan Shippee
Vice President	Arlene Bennett
Secretary	Roberta Heath
Parlimentarian	Florence Osgood
Historian	Colleen Mead
Reporter	Madeline Emery
Treasurer	Constance Gardner
Song Leader	Mary Ellen Douglass

There are eight specific purposes of the organization.

1. To promote a growing appreciation of the joys and satisfactions of homemaking.
2. To emphasize the importance of worthy home membership.

3. To encourage democracy in home and community life.
4. To work for good home and family life for all.
5. To promote international good-will.
6. To foster the development of creative leadership in home and community life.
7. To provide wholesome individual and group recreation.
8. To further interest in home economics.

Step by step, members progress from the Junior Homemaker Degree to the American Homemaker Degree, which is the highest level of achievement.

The members of the Gould Academy Future Homemakers of America Club have planned a varied and interesting schedule.

Football

On September 29, at Bethel, Gould opened its 1951 football season in a rugged contest against the Mexico Pintos. As "Jes" Symons' flying legs shot the ball over for both of the Husky touchdowns, the Blue and Gold team ran up their first victory of the year to a 14 - 2 score.

Before we run down the remainder of the G.A. football schedule, let's take a glance at the less spectacular end of football. Three weeks of hard work in sweat-soaked, practice togs went into that first game. Out of the forty odd candidates, many positions on the varsity squad and a complete J. V. line-up had to be made up. The only regulars back from the '50 squad were quarterback Agnese, end Norm Ferguson, guard Bob Patterson, and center, Capt. Roger Adams. To fill the holes Coach Scott and his assistants, Coaches Roderick and Kailey, had a lot of juggling to do before they could hope for a winning combo.

Since high schools were allowed free substitution this year, positions were opened to two regular varsity squads — a defensive and offensive platoon. The offensive line-up for the opening game was: Roger Adams, center; Smith and Patterson, guards; Bacon and Bennett, tackles; Johnson and Ferguson, ends; Symons and Barlett, halves; Murphy fullback, and Agnese quarterback, while the last-ditch platoon was made up of "Speedy" Gilman, Melville, Hastings, Olson, Wilson, Biden, Sweeney, Herbie Adams and Linnell.

Pepped up from their victory of the previous Saturday, the Huskies journeyed to South Paris to be immediately crushed 18 - 0 by the Cardinals' ace ball carrier and tackler, Ray Richards.

At Lyndon, Vermont, the following week, the teams of Lyndon Institute and Gould Academy squared away for what was actually a play-off game in a four game series. Each team had won once and hung up two 7 - 7 ties. During the first half a see-saw battle raged over the gridiron, neither team scoring. In the third quarter Lyndon slipped one over to give them a 6 - 0 edge. Gould was unable to score in the entire game; however, the Husky game was made interesting by two freshmen stars, Burnham, whose line bucking marched away many yards, and Phil Rowe, who plucked numerous Lyndon punts from the air and picked his way lightly through the charging tacklers.

Back home for Parents' Day, Gould took the field against a powerful Berlin club, only to be ripped apart 25-6 by their hard running backs. Burnham scored the only G.A. touchdown in a 60 yard sprint.

Berlin's mauling was the last of the season for the Huskies. The next contest was with the Green and White of Livermore Falls — the team which, a year before, had whitewashed Gould 39 - 0.

That afternoon a fired-up Gould team met a slightly over-confident visiting eleven at Bethel. In the first half each team chalked up a T.D. However, the second half told the story. After pushing over another touchdown in the third quarter, the Huskies completely hog-tied Livermore for a 12 - 6 final score.

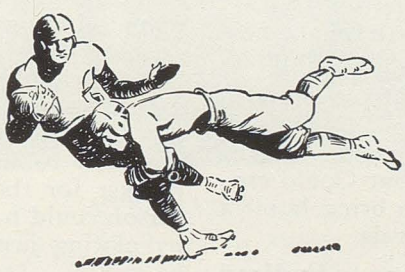

The next Friday was spent in clearing the field of three inches of wet snow. Saturday, a torrential downpour made play impossible. On Monday the Wilton Eagles lined up against a spirited Gould team only to be ripped apart to the tune of 19 - 0 for the Huskies' most decisive victory in a game again highlighted by Symons' brilliant running.

On November 10, the Huskies traveled to Fryeburg for the traditional season-closing game with Fryeburg Academy. Although the game was a rough and tumble affair, all of the players had a good time and Gould managed to come out on top, 25 - 19.

Looking back on the season, probably the most outstanding player was Capt. Roger Adams, whose spirit kept the team going and whose tackles stopped the opposition. Close behind him were three hard-to-stop backs — Symons, Johnson and Burnham.

Although there will be many lost through graduation, there is still an impressive squad ready to step forward next fall. Heading the group that will be ready to step to the scrimmage line and wait tensely for the snap number to be barked from the quarterback's lips, is Capt-elect and left tackel Erwin Bacon, followed by Herbie Adams, Burnham, Rowe, Murphy, Taylor, Edelstein, Gale, Olson, and Sonny Hastings.

Cross Country

Gould's harriers, although hurt by the loss of Chadbourne, Saunders, and Coolidge, resumed practice on the second day of school with high hopes for the year. During the first few days of practice complaints of sore legs, aching backs, and blistered feet were quite common around the field house, but gradually, under the thoughtful guidance of Coach Fossett, the team began to take shape and by Oct. 3rd were strong enough to turn back a Dixfield team by the score of 18 - 37. Harley Merrill and Leo Rolfe led the field with Magoon of Dixfield close behind.

On Oct. 10th the Gouldsters traveled to Fryeburg to hand them a 20 - 43 beating on their own 2½ mile course. Payne of Fryeburg won the race, but Gould captured the next ten places to bring home a victory over our age-old rivals.

Oct. 16th, Gould moved on to Portland and met their first defeat of the season. Guimond of Portland won the race, setting a new course record in doing so. Harley Merrill followed closely for Gould, but the rest of the team found the pace too rugged and failed to do quite as well despite their fine showing. They finished as follows: Merrill 2, Lovejoy 6, Bosworth 7, Rolfe 9, and Willard 10th.

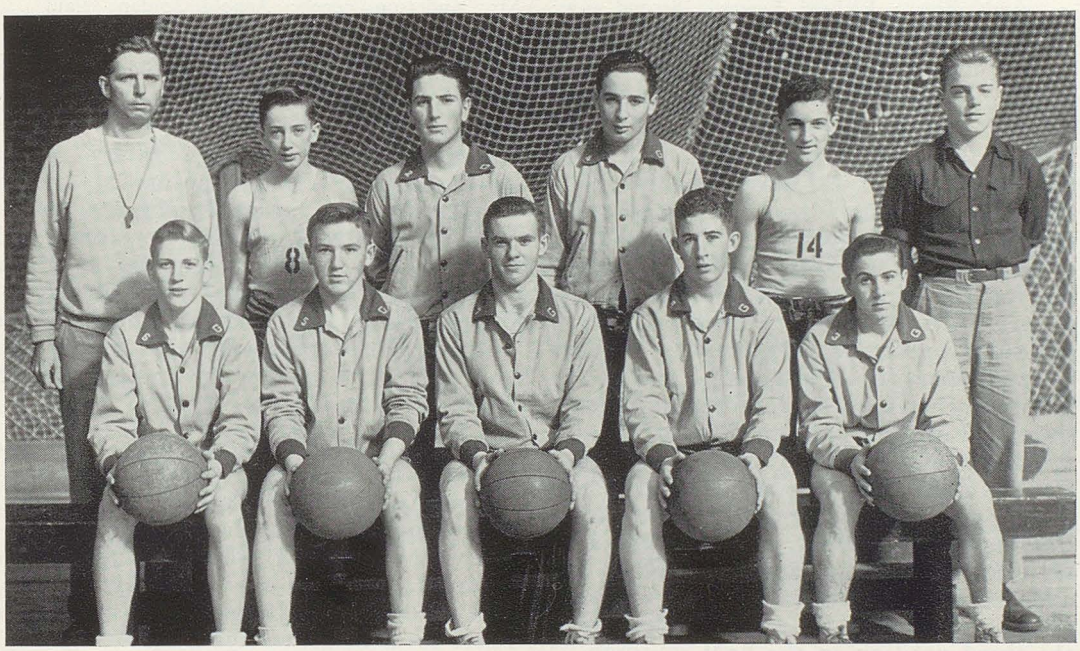

By the 22nd the team knew that their chances of going to the State Meet hinged upon winning their meet with Rumford on that date. The team gave all it had but still fell one point short as Rumford won 27 - 28. Merrill again won the meet but Gould's next four runners were just one place behind. The meet was a heartbreaker for the team to lose, as any one person could have given Gould the victory by placing just one place ahead of where he did.

Because of the closeness of the Rumford meet, it was decided that the team would journey to the University of Maine where the State Meet was being held. Maine, playing host to the meet, greeted the runners with one of its finest snow storms. By race time 2½ inches of the white stuff had fallen, so after tramping to the far end of the football field, the team removed its snow shoes and shivered in the cold for ten minutes until the race was finally started. Gould finished with a team score of 289, giving them 8th place. Rolfe placed 28th out of 120 runners.

Next year will find Capt-elect Harley Merrill, Leo Rolfe, Eddie Hastings, David Fleet, and Ray Nowlin returning from this year's letter men. The places of Jordan, Willard, and Lovejoy, this year's graduates, will be filled by hopefuls: L. Merrill, D. Ault, K. Merrill, G. Gale, W. Coolidge, R. Edney, R. Lingham.

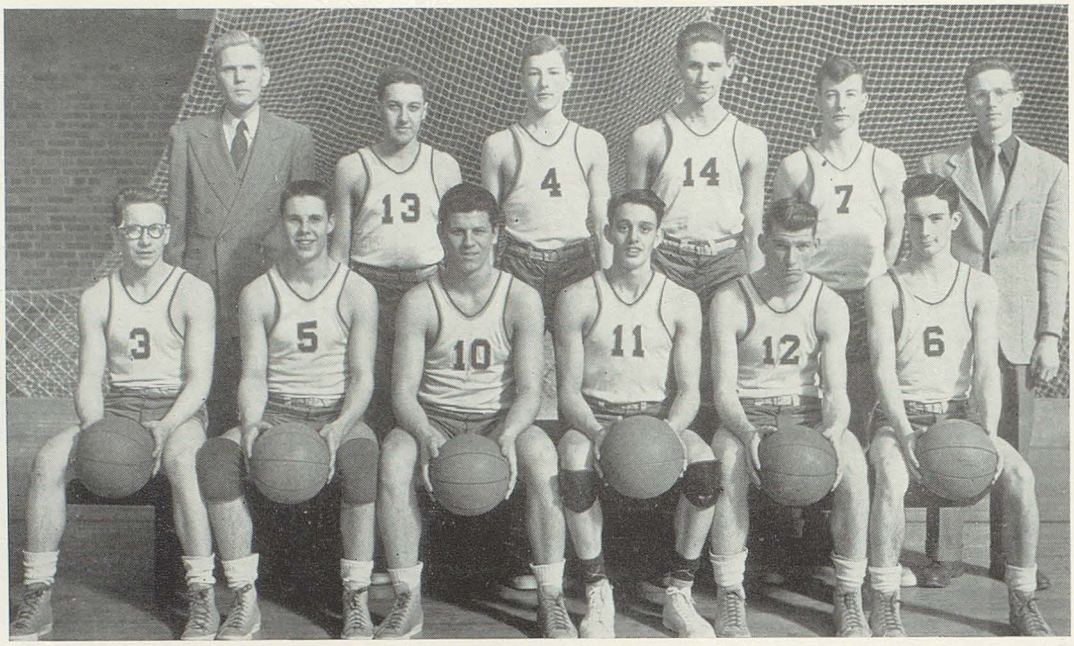

Good luck, fellows!

Basketball

Gould's basketeers of 1951 - 52 were faced with one of the most difficult schedules in many years when Coach Anderson, starting his twenty-fourth straight year as Gould mentor, called out candidates to vie for the ten positions on the varsity roster. Twelve of the sixteen games scheduled proved to be against teams that were chosen for Class "L" and "M" Tournaments in Maine and New Hampshire. However, one game with Wilton Academy was cancelled due to their entrance in the tournament. The Huskies gained six victories against nine defeats in this rugged slate which proved to be a better record than was expected. Their five and three record in the Western Division of the Sun-Journal League landed them the third position in the final standing.

The loss of three of last year's starters dealt a severe blow to Coach Anderson, who sadly lacked experienced players at the season's start. Captain "Hoby" Lowell, who totaled 227 points at center, Wayne Bennett, valuable aggressive guard, and Dick Elwell, consistent scorer and capable ball-handler, were boys whose positions were extremely difficult to fill. Coach tried many combinations for his starting five throughout the season and gave the boys plenty of opportunity to show their ability.

The hopes of the team rested upon the veterans who this year proved to be most inconsistent. The longest period of good consistent ball was played early in February when the Huskies salvaged three victories in a row over Norway, Wilton, and Bridgton. The quintet displayed its finest form in games against two tourney-selected teams; a decisive thirty point victory over Mexico and a sparkling 56 to 38 win over Wilton highlighted the season.

Center Leo Rolfe, a new comer who became Gould's foul shooting champ by tossing 42 out of 50 from the free throw line, lead the Huskies in total points with 162 counters for the season. Captain Henri Agnese, with a 31 point production in one game against Norway, followed in the second spot with 147. The only other player to top the hundred mark was Pete Johnson who totaled 130. At guard, Frank Murphy scored 51 points but proved valuable as a hard aggressive player. Dick Emery, Paul Fossett, Dave Jordan, Arnold Jordan, and Gene White handled the reserve chores. In fifteen starts, Gould earned an average of 44 points per game compared with 46 for the opposition.

The following players were presented their G's for the season: Captain Henri Agnese, Pete Johnson, Leo Rolfe, Frank Murphy, Dick Emery, Paul Fossett, Dave Jordan, Arnold Jordan, and Manager Frank Linnell.

Graduating this spring are Agnese, Johnson, D. Jordan, and A. Jordan. Agnese and Johnson have been regulars for two seasons, and their positions will be very difficult to fill.

Nevertheless, the outlook for 1952-53 is promising. Next year's team will be built around the returning lettermen: Rolfe, Murphy, Emery, and Fossett. The vastly improved Gene White will also be a strong candidate. Likewise Carroll Melville, Lee Merrill, Ed Butler, and Albert Taylor, who lead the Junior Varsity through a highly successful season, will provide good varsity material. Under Coach Bowhay, the Pups produced eight wins and four losses, three of the defeats coming from Class "L" schools. Undefeated in S-J League play, the Jayvees came through with seven well-earned victories. Their single game average totaled 44 points while the opponents were held to 32.

Winter Sports

The Gould Huskies got off to a good start this year with a big turnout for the team. Coach Paul Kailey was on the job in an attempt to mould an almost entirely new down hill and slalom squad; Roger Adams was the only veteran left from last year's team.

The Huskies racked up their first win by triumphing over Holderness School at Plymouth New Hampshire on Jan. 12. The final score was 380.6 to 354.8.

The next week-end brought Gould back on home grounds in a dual meet with Lyndon Institute of Vermont. Gould swept the cross country to give us a 25 point lead, and we wound up with 372.77 points to Lyndon's 356.69.

Gould placed second out of five entries in the Edward Little Carnival on the following week-end. Captain Ferguson took the cross country as he did in the first two meets. Bacon came through with a third in down hill while Adams and Brown took fourth and fifth in slalom. Adams also led the Gould team in jumping with a fifth place.

Gould was second in the ten-team Berlin Carnival the following week. Ferguson was out of the cross-country with injuries but was back to ski in the other events. Gerry Fortin placed first in the cross-country. The next day's events placed our team second to Lebanon, New Hampshire.

At the State Interscholastic Meet at Rumford, Gould was second to the Eddies. Ferguson and Fortin were second and third in the cross-country; R. Adams, Burnham, and H. Adams were in the first fifteen. The team placed third in down hill, second in slalom, and second in jumping. The individual places in slalom were as follows: Butler, fourth, and Brown, ninth. In the jumping Fortin captured fourth for the blue and gold and R. Adams was in the first ten.

The next week-end brought the Huskies back home as host to twelve teams in the Annual New England Interscholastic Ski Championships. The cross-country results gave us a narrow margin over Lebanon as Ferguson took first and Fortin fourth. Gould was pushed back to second that afternoon when they were beaten by both Lebanon and Edward Little in down hill. Ferguson and Hastings were best for Gould with a tie for thirteenth, and they were followed by R. Adams in fifteenth position. After the slalom in which Butler, Hastings, Adams, and Brown took eleventh, thirteenth, fifteenth, and seventeenth respectively, Gould was third and they retained this place for the entire meet. Burnham, R. Adams, H. Adams, and Fortin placed seventh, fifteenth, sixteenth, and ninteenth in the jumping. The team standings were: Lebanon 379.66; Edward Little 376.33; Gould 367.29; Lyndon 341.51; Laconia 338.31; Middlebury 336.76; Putney 328.88; Berlin 323.69; Pittsfield 322.06; Rumford 317.18; Williamstown 241.75; Drury 208.03.

The Huskies wound up the season by traveling to Hanover, New Hampshire to participate in the Eastern Interscholastic Ski Meet. We took the cross-country with Ferguson first, Fortin third, R. Adams ninth, and Burnham and H. Adams placing well also. Gould was last in down hill and slalom but came back to take second in jumping to wind up in third place for the entire meet. The jumping team did exceptionally well with H. Adams leading them with second place honors. R. Adams, Fortin, Burnham, and Ferguson were seventh, eighth, thirteenth and twenty-third respectively.

Prospects for next year look fine with veterans C. Brown, Butler, Bacon, H. Adams, Burnham, and Hastings returning to ski for Gould under the expert coaching of Paul Kailey.

Baseball

Venturing into the fieldhouse cage away from the last cold effects of winter in the early days of March, some fifty hopefuls were on hand for the opening practice session of the 1951 Gould baseball season.

The loss of valuable material in players such as Dave Durgin, Clint Mason, Bob Hamilton, Burt Rolfe, Ronnie Kendall, Mike Boyd, Charlie Smith, Dick Marshall, Bob Gorman, and Sonny Bean necessitated a thorough rebuilding proceedure in the squad, as only veterans Henri Agnese, newly elected captain Ray Chase, Dave Jordan, and Paul Bartlett were back from the previous year's championship team.

These open positions, however, were soon filled with capable prospects, who, with the four returning men, began diligent practice sessions inside the building, until the wet playing field was gradually dried by the early spring sun.

Rather skeptical about his choices for the season opener, Coach Bowhay finally announced his lineup for the first game against South Paris on April 28.

Finally the big day arrived, which proved to be a successful one for the newly assembled team. Featured by the five hit pitching of Dave Jordan, chalking up thirteen strikeouts in the win, the Huskies captured the opener by a 7-5 score. A three run homer by Harry Bartlett in the second inning decided the verdict.

Perhaps a little overconfident about their early victory, the Gould nine met Norway at home, this time ending on the short end by a 10-3 score. Shaky fielding on Gould's part contributed largely to the loss as a total of five errors was charged against the home team. Captain Ray Chase with three hits starred for Gould.

Presently with a 1 - 1 record, Gould journeyed to Gorham, N.H. for their first away game of the season. Coasting along with an 11 - 5 lead, Gould was given a scare when the home team came up with four runs in the ninth inning. However, Herbie Adams finally put out the fire, and the win was preserved.

Following this, the team drove to Fryeburg for a game with their non-league rivals. The team, often looking sloppy during the game, lost by a 12 - 6 score. Paul Bartlett, with four for five hits, and Ray Chase, with three hits, were the most dangerous Gould batsmen.

Saturday, May 12, not only proved to be a gloomy day as far as the weather was concerned, but also for the Gould team. The Cardinals of South Paris assembled 18 runs on 12 hits off starter Dave Jordan and Bob Davis to easily swamp Gould 18 - 1. A big Paris fifth featured the contest, when nine runs were pushed across the plate. Harry Bartlett took hitting honors for the Huskies, collecting three for four off ace hurler, Billy Snow.

Journeying to Rumford, Gould met Mexico again for the last time in the season. Jordan, striking out 13, walking 9, and yielding only 3 hits, easily won his fifth game. The game was close most of the way, but Gould broke the ice with two runs in the top of the ninth, sealing the verdict 7 - 4.

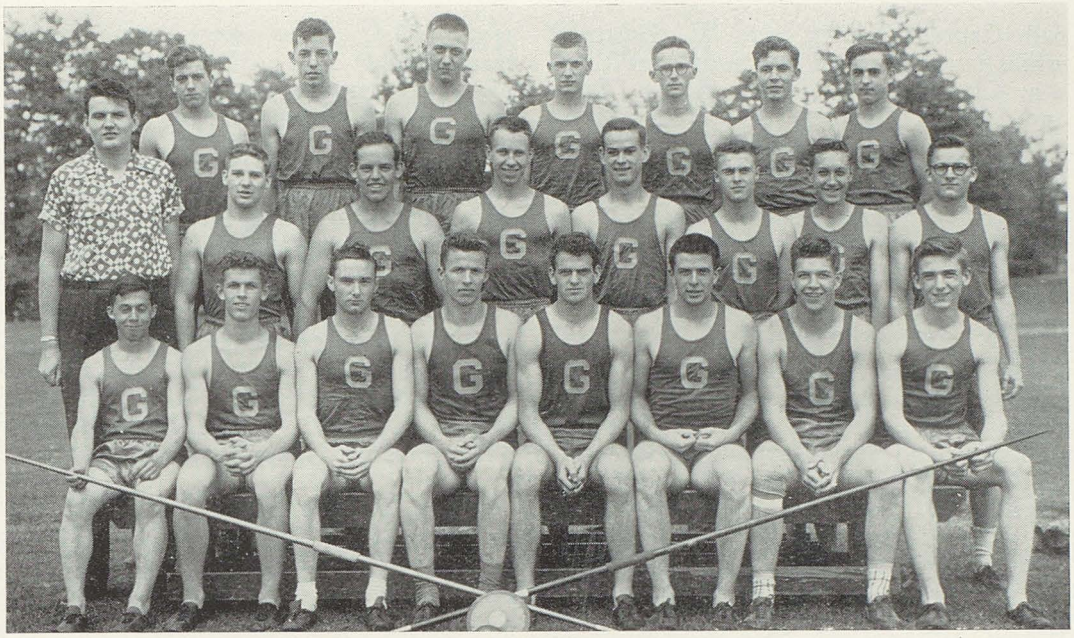

In a slugfest game, where 18 hits were divided between Gould and Gorham, the Huskies were aided by a five run seventh inning to win again from Gorham by a score of 9 - 4. Davis went the route for Gould, winning his second of the year.

With the official league and exhibition games completed for another year, Gould entertained the Alumni team at Bethel, June 10. The experience of the visitors proved to be too much for the young Gould team as they overcame the home team 13 - 4. Henri Agnese was tops for Gould with two runs.

Coach Bowhay, who performed wonders with the available material in this year's team, hopes for even a better season during 1952. As Ray Chase, John Mason, and Gordon Howe have graduated, their positions will have to be replaced by some of this season's hopefuls.

Third row: Floyd Staples; Warren Hastings; Irwin Bacon; Melvin Olson; Frank Linnell; Edward Hastings; Arlan Jodrey.

Track

Setting their minds on regaining the state trophy, the new-comers and old alike flocked to the field house to take the kinks out of their arms and legs while the winter snow slowly melted and began exposing patches of grass here and there. Under the guidance of Joe Roderick and Mr. Scott, the boys began to show the great talents that were to win them every meet of the year.

To open the year in fine fashion the team easily over-powered Edward Little of Auburn 71 to 46 under the outstanding work of Chadbourne, Ferguson, W. Hastings, Linell, Symons, and Captain Emery.

With one victory under their belts, they journeyed to Farmington where they again easily subdued their opponents 81½ - 59½.

Now they were shaping into the championship team that they really were. To prove this, they went to Lewiston on May 19 and entered the Bates Relays. Showing rather poorly in the morning with but 9 points to 28 for Wells, they shot into the lead in the final event with the expert running of Streeter, Tifft, Symons, and Ferguson to clinch their third victory in a row.

Now they were set for the Oxford County Meet on May 26. Showing superiority in a great many fields, the boys again established a wide margin of victory. Leading the field with 67½ points to 34 1/6 for Rumford, 23 1/3 for Fryeburg, and 18 for Mexico, the team really gained the confidence that they needed when they were to undertake the State Meet. First places went to Symons, Linnell, Captain Emery, and W. Hastings, while gaining second positions were Lamson, Chadbourne, Linnell, Bacon, Tifft, and Streeter.

Finally came the long awaited June 2. Spurred on by a perfect undefeated season, the team travelled to Waterville for the State Meet. The following is an account of one of the most exciting and truly well earned sport events in Gould history.

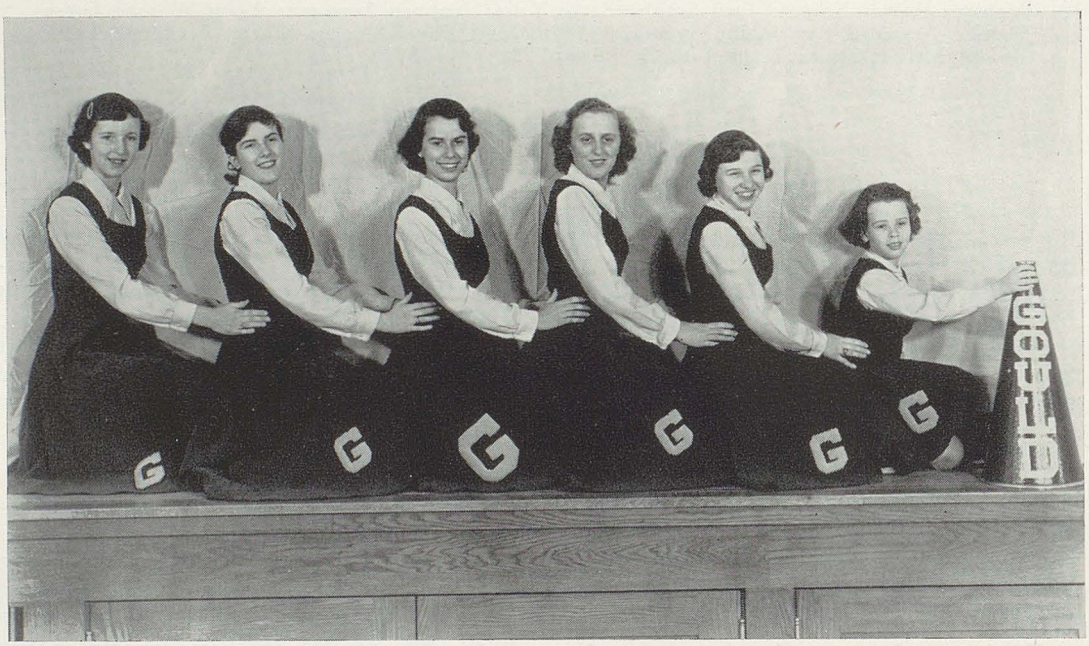

Going into the final event, the 880, the Gould tracksters were trailing Skowhegan by 9½ points. But with determination and never-say-die spirits, they displayed all their power by taking first, second, and fourth places with Chadbourne, Ferguson, and Lamson showing respectively. The score card finally read Gould 53 11/35 and Skowhegan 52 16/35 putting the trophy right back in the Gould trophy case for another year.

Ted Chadbourne, Captain Jerry Emery, Les Streeter, Bob Tifft, Hoby Lowell, and Rip Bennett are finally hanging up their track shoes at Gould and we wish them the best of everything in the future years.

In 1952 with captain-elect John Symons we will welcome back the veterans W. Hastings, E. Bacon, F. Linnell, N. Ferguson, and J. Fortin and the many newcomers that may don their sweatsuits.

Here's for another championship!

Athletic Council

The Athletic Council, an active Gould organization, is now completing its fifth successful year under the capable guidance of our Headmaster, Mr. Elwood Ireland.

The Council consists of five permanent members and five elective members whose term of office is one year. The five permanent members are: Mr. Elwood Ireland, Chairman; Mr. Ordell Anderson, Faculty Director of Athletics; Mr. Wilbur Myers, Bursar; Mr. Richmond Roderick, Boys' Physical Education Director and Miss Doryce Arndt, Girls' Physical Education Director.

The five elective members include: Mr. Paul Kailey, Head Coach; Donald Bennett, Student Council representative; Carol Barton, Girls' Athletic Association representative; Mr. Leslie Davis, Trustee representative and Mr. Elmer Bennett, Alumni representative.

The many duties of the Athletic Council include: discussion and approval of all athletic schedules, budgets and equipment purchases; engaging of all athletic officials for home games; to determine the eligibility of those receiving awards and the type of athletic award to be given and formulate policies regarding athletic injuries. It also takes care of unexpected problems which might arise.

To receive a letter a boy participating in any sport must take part in a given number of games, depending on the sport, or be otherwise approved by the council. All boys having won six letters in successive seasons or seven letters in an unlimited number of seasons may receive a letter sweater for outstanding service in athletics.

All those who receive a letter sweater have certainly earned something to be proud of. Those receiving sweaters in 1951 are: Wayne Bennett, Leslie Streeter, Theodore Chadbourne, Norman Lowell, Henri Agnese, Norman Ferguson, and Pete Johnson will each get one by spring this year.

Those receiving letters in 1951 are:

Basketball:

Norman Lowell, (Capt.), Dick Elwell, Pete Johnson, Henri Agnese, Andrew Biden, Wayne Bennett, Richard Douglass, James Durham, Wayne Gilman (Mgr.).

Cross Country:

John Willard, Phil Lovejoy, Dale Bosworth, Edward Hastings (Capt.), Harley Merrill, Leo Rolfe, Raymond Nowlin, David Fleet, Pete Hussey (Mgr.)

Track:

Irwin Bacon, Wayne Bennett, Theodore Chadbourne, Gerald Emery (Capt.), Norman Ferguson, Warren Hastings, Thomas Lamson, Frank Linnell, Norman Lowell, Gary Melville, Shelby Putnam, Floyd Staples, Leslie Streeter, John Symons, Robert Tifft, Bryce Yates, Robert Knight (Mgr.).

Football:

Skiing:

Leslie Streeter (Capt.), Thomas Lamson, Raymond Chase, Gerald Emery, Shelby Putnam, Addison Saunders, Norman Ferguson, Roger Adams, Richard Chick.

Baseball:

Raymond Chase (Capt.), Pete Johnson, Paul Bartlett, Henri Agnese, Dick Elwell, Harry Bartlett, John Mason, David Jordan, Phil Lovejoy, Herbert Adams, Gordon Howe, Clarence Howe, Bob-Ray Davis, Levi Swanson (Mgr.).

Girls' Physical Education

Under the Girls' Athletic Association, the girls' afternoons and some Saturdays are filled participating in many different sports. The Association is made up of class representatives, officers, and managers of the different sports.

Five points are usually given for going out for a sport and attending the required number of practices. Two more points are awarded if the girl is elected to the class team and three more points for being on one of the Blue and Gold varsity teams. The point system is a little different in individual sports, such as hiking, tennis, or badminton. In tennis and badminton, extra points can be won in tournaments; in hiking only five points can be won, and in skiing either five or ten points are won, depending on the number of practices each week.

After a girl has won fifty points, she is awarded her class numerals, eighty points a letter "G", and having earned one hundred points is eligible for an Athletic Medal.

As the highlight of the Association's year, an A. A. party is held with class skits, entertainment, and plenty of cider and doughnuts. This year the senior class won the prize for the best skit.

The A. A., with Miss Arndt's guidance, succeeded in putting forth an athletic program this fall for the girls with hiking, tennis, and field hockey. Hiking proved to be a popular sport with the added attraction of a Mt. Washington climb. In spite of rain and fog, the girls managed to conquer the mountain on October 6. Bicycle hikes were also taken to such places as Screw Auger Falls, Gilead, and Lockes Mills, sometimes with a round-trip distance of over thirty miles.

In both the spring and fall, we improve our tennis techniques under the skillful supervision of Mrs. Richardson. Round-robins and tournaments, popular last spring, will be held this spring to determine the tennis champion of Gould.

After daily hockey practices with plenty of bumps and bruises, the class teams were chosen. The sophomores, with their fast and scrappy team, turned out to be the new hockey champions, defeating last year's champions, the seniors. Because of early snow, no Blue and Gold game was played between the two teams picked from the best players of every class.

After hockey season was over, the girls became volleyball conscious, practicing in class and after school against teams made up from the different classes. Finally the class teams were chosen with the senior team winning.

After Christmas, Bethel was covered with a beautiful blanket of snow resembling the winters of old. Taking advantage of the snow, we promptly lacquered and waxed the hickory boards and went out to Mr. Richardson's ski classes. Available to Outing Club members are ski tow privileges at Swan's Corner and many Saturday ski trips.

Each Friday, starting after Christmas. lessons in First Aid were given. A visitor to the gym might have thought that Bethel was a disaster area when the girls practiced applying bandages, splints, artificial respiration, etc.

Basketball, along with skiing, is a popular winter sport at Gould. Some girls manage to find time to participate in both of these sports, earning five points each. As in volleyball, after practicing in class and after school, class teams are chosen and finally Blue and Gold teams.

In the junior and senior classes Modern Dance instruction has been given to those desiring it. Some of the girls have said that the exercises are good for reducing in addition to helping their gracefulness. A group made up of the best Modern Dancers will be used as a demonstration group at the Eastern District Convention of Health, Physical Education, and Recreation in April.

To round out our activities and skills, classes in knitting, under Miss Monzert's direction, and classes in bridge, under Mrs. Goggin's and Mrs. Blackadar's guidance were held in Gehring Hall. Perhaps some lucky boy who is the owner of some hand knit socks or a sweater should be thankful for this class.

The girls' gym has been given a new face lifting this year with a blue-gray and yellow interior, new doors, a canteen, fire proofing, and even a new exit. Many of our classes were held among the din of sawing and hammering.

We are very fortunate to have such fine facilities, and we appreciate the time and effort spent by the various members of the faculty helping us.

CAROLYN BROWN, '52

Boy's Physical Education

Boys' Physical Education has become a most important class in the past year, since the call for boys in good health has come to be so increasingly important because of the war in Korea.

The juniors and seniors have undergone many various tests for both strength and skill, as a basis for future service in our armed forces to better prepare themselves for the tests they shall have to encounter when inducted. However, they have had their share of fun, such as working on the tramp-o-line, wrestling, football, basketball, baseball, handball, badminton, and running.

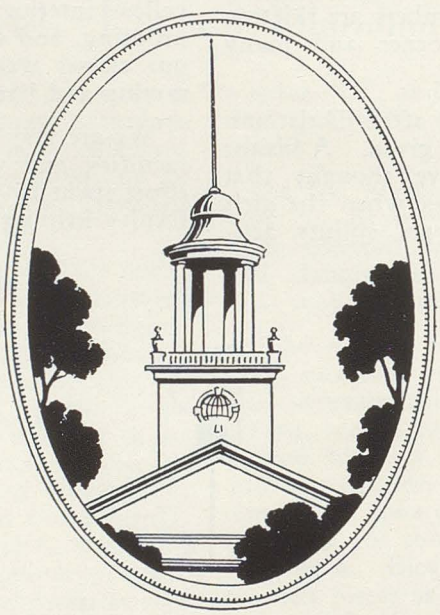

Tumbling, a most important activity because it requires close coordination of mind and body, has gained its share of time and has had much to do with the improvement so noticeable in boys after a year at Gould. Learning to do both forward and backward rolls, flips, and the use of a springboard have helped many to build themselves up, and may, in the future, save many from injuries on the football field, as well as in many other sports.

This year Joe Roderick has again undertaken to teach First Aid, which has been very successful and will be a help to all of us at one time or another.

Twice during the year all the classes are given strength tests to indicate to each boy just how much he has improved throughout the year. These tests include pull-ups, dips, lung capacity, hand grip strength, back lift, leg lift, etc.

Thanks to Joe, we have been able to have a good program which has, no doubt, helped many improve to the point where they will stand out in any group and will be able to speak well for themselves in any college or military camp.
